

School-To-Prison Pipeline in Indian Country

*What are the Problems?
What are the Solutions?*

<http://conferences.asucollegeoflaw.com/schooltoprison/>
Registration Free! ~ Sponsorships Available!

Includes:
Keynote, Symposium,
Town Hall and Reflection Panel

7:30 A.M. – 5:15 P.M. / Friday, March 27, 2015

Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law ~ Great Hall

The “School-To-Prison Pipeline” has become a major concern for the general public across our country due in large part to the spiraling statistics and the negative impact on children of color. Some advocates have defined the problem as a systematic way of syphoning children out of public schools and funneling them into the juvenile and criminal justice system. In fact, many civil rights lawyers regard the journey from “School-To-Prison Pipeline,” as the most critical civil rights issue facing our country today.

This event will bring together individuals to discuss pipeline concerns, experts who have developed successful programs and projects across the country to address pipeline issues, and individuals and organizations from diverse backgrounds who are working toward solutions to this issue.

This is the only ABA sponsored event to focus exclusively on the “School-To-Prison Pipeline” in Indian Country.

To register or for more information, go to <http://conferences.asucollegeoflaw.com/schooltoprison/>

Questions about this event? Contact Jennifer Williams at Jennifer.h.williams@asu.edu or 480-727-0420.

Arizona State Law Journal

